

LIFESPAN MEMBERS SPEAK OUT AGAINST NURSING HOME MEDICAID CUTS

Over the last two weeks, LifeSpan members have spoken out in their local papers against the recent cuts to the nursing home reimbursement budget. Letters to the Editor can be found at:

1. Baltimore Sun - Pat Supik, CFO, Keswick Multi-Care "Cuts Will Hurt Seniors"
2. The Independent - Bud Zimmeran, CEO, Charles County Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, "Quality of Care is Threatened by State Budget Cuts"
3. The Cumberland Times - Jeff Metz, Egle Nursing Home "State Cuts Funds to Nursing Homes Another \$23 Million"
4. Washington Jewish Week, Warren Slavin, Charles E. Smith Life Communities "Health Care for the Elderly"